This Week At Friendship

October 11, 2020

We return to worship in the Building on October 18th at 8 & 9:15 in the Family Life Center. Bring your own chairs. 10:30 in the Nave. Masks are required. Details & guidelines will be mailed this week. Contact the church office to schedule your Friendship group to use the Family Life Center. The building remains closed to outside groups.

CREW will meet on Sundays at the Cross, 3:30pm.

Food Drive-We continue to collect items, so please continue to bring them. The collection containers are in the Parish House garage. The food will be checked and taken to the pantries as needed. Right now there is great need for BEANS & RICE.

Rag ball Tournament- will be October 16th & 17th. All proceeds will go to Whitney Dillard Heart Transplant Fund. Please contact Chad Kerley for questions @ 828 308-2412. Concessions will be open both days. Friendship will take up a love offering for Whitney on Sunday, Oct. 25th. Whitney Kerley Dillard is a member of Friendship Lutheran Church, she is married to Dustin Dillard & has an 11 year old daughter Lynsdi Mecimore. Whitney is the daughter of Rachel Price Miller and Terry Kerley and grand daughter of Willard & Rut Price. You may send cards of encouragement & well wishes to 1285 Black Oak Ridge Road, Taylorsville NC 28681.

Red Cross Blood Drive Sunday, Oct. 18th, 12:30-5 pm. If you have questions or want to give blood, call Sue Bumgarner at 828-381-7058, for homemade cakes/cookies, call Donna Icard at 828-310-4890, or to volunteer as a helper (serving food or work at the desk) call Jewell Elder @ 632-3544.

Prayers of the Church

As God's people we commit together to pray for one another, to lift up before God all leaders, those in authority, and these members, family, friends and neighbors in need. We pray daily for their welfare, healing, and well-being. If anyone needs to be added or removed from our list, please let us know. Names in bold were added this week.
